This proclamation addresses, challenges and duly forewarns the three levels of government involved (Canada, Quebec and New Brunswick) as well as the general public regarding the validity and legality of buying, selling, developing and/or claiming title to lands that have never been ceded, sold, surrendered, traded, bartered, exchanged or compromised in any way by the land's original owners, the Maliseet/Wolastoqewiyik of Skiginaweekoog or Indian Homeland.

In this and all we say and do we are of one mind with Ancestors, and of one heart with the People, and of one spirit with the Seventh Generation.
